TIES and PLAYER ATTIRE

- Tie-Breakers in the group stages will go according to FIFA rules:
 - Points, Goal Differential, Goals in Favor, Head-to-Head, etc.
 - Tie-Breakers in the playoff stages will go right into sudden-death penalty kicks. This shootout is NOT like the penalty kick shootout specified in the Game Play/Restarts section below. The ball shall be placed on the opposite penalty area. The only player on the field shall be the kicker.
 - NO Goalkeeper is allowed. All players of both teams not taking the kick shall stand by their respective bench and outside the playing field.
 - Teams must wear a uniform color shirt, jersey, or other clearly identifying clothing. No gang colors or clothes will be permitted.
 - All players will be given a wristband at check-in that identifies them as registered players. Wristbands must be worn at all times and cannot be traded to other persons. Failure to comply will result in player and/or team's dismissal from the tournament.

GAME PLAY/RESTARTS

- Kick-In: When the ball has entirely cross the touch line or curb, the opposing team to that which last touched the ball is awarded a kick-in. The ball shall be placed on the street where the ball exited the playing field and play resumes as an indirect free kick.
- Goal Kick: When the ball has entirely crossed the goal line without a goal having been scored and having last been touched by an attacker, the ball is awarded to the defending team. The ball is thrown from any point within the penalty area by the goalkeeper of the defending team. The ball is in play when it is thrown beyond the penalty area.
- Direct/Indirect Free Kicks: Players of the opposite team awarded the ball must stand at least a yard away from the ball when a direct and indirect free kick restart is awarded. Players defending cannot reach forward for the ball prior to the shot being taken. Players that fail to abide by these rules are subject to a warning (yellow card) and potential ejection from the game (red card).
- Yellow and Red Cards: Players who receive a yellow card must be substituted out for at least one (1) minute prior to returning to competition. Players who receive a red card will be ejected from the game and their team will play a man down.
- Ejections: Players who are ejected from the game will only be allowed to play the following game after meeting with referees and tournament officials and receiving permission. Violence will not be tolerated. Players who engage in acts of violence are subject to ejection from the tournament and possible arrest.
- No slide tackling is allowed. All calls will be made under referees' discretion.
- All other FIFA Rules Apply.

MEALS

- All registered players will receive a voucher good for one (1) complimentary meal. Meal tickets will be given to team during check-in. Meal tickets are non-transferrable and will not be replaced if lost or stolen.
